

I am a skeptical free thinker who believes firmly in the enlightenment principles of democracy, free speech, viewpoint diversity, and open discussion.

However, I personally chose to refrain from endorsing or dissenting from any social, political, ideological or moral statements made by individuals or organizations with which I am affiliated.

Therefore, I neither endorse nor do I disagree with any statements, opinions, or viewpoints made by any of the entities with which I am affiliated, including Florida Gulf Coast University, United Faculty of Florida, the State University System of Florida, the Florida State Government, and the United States Government.
